INVESTIGATIVE NARRATIVE

On September 2, 2004, Captain Irma Becerra requested that the Internal Affairs Bureau monitor a criminal trial involving Deputy David Green [redacted] Deputy Green was charged by the San Bernardino County District Attorney's Office with the following:

- Criminal Threats, Penal Code Section 422
- False Information to a Police Officer, Vehicle Code Section 31
- Resist, Obstruct, Delay of a Peace Officer or EMT, Penal Code Section 148(a)(1)

On Thursday, October 13, 2005, the Honorable Judge Craig S. Kamansky declared that the jury was hopelessly deadlocked. Judge Kamansky dismissed all charges against Deputy Green pursuant to Penal Code Section 1385 which states, "The judge or magistrate may, either of his or her own motion or upon the application of the prosecuting attorney, and in furtherance of justice, order an action to be dismissed." Refer to Exhibit "B" Superior Court Transcripts, Case No. MWV-092168, Page 506.

> IAB Note: Deputy District Attorney, Salvador Silva was interviewed by Sergeant Hill to provide an overview of the criminal complaint and trial heard in Superior Court.

SYNOPSIS OF INCIDENT

On Sunday, July 25, 2004, at approximately 1828 hours, a traffic accident occurred at Milliken Ave., and Kenyon Ave., in the City of Rancho Cucamonga. A [redacted] owned by [redacted] Green [redacted] rear-ended a [redacted] driven by Mr. [redacted] and owned by his sister Ms. [redacted]. Refer to Exhibit "A" CHP 555 Traffic Collision Report by Deputy [redacted].

Statement by Mr. [redacted]

Mr. [redacted] statement was obtained from the following sources:

- Deputy [redacted] traffic report, DR #110410503, Exhibit "A."
- Mr. [redacted] courtroom testimony obtained from transcripts of the proceedings, Refer to Exhibit "B" Superior Court Transcripts, Case No. MWV-092168, Volume 2, Page 2.
- District Attorney Investigator Ronald Moore's interview of Mr. [redacted] on September 22, 2005, Exhibit "C."

Mr. [redacted] stated that on July 25, 2004, at approximately 1828 hours, he was driving his sister's [redacted]. He was stopped behind another vehicle northbound on Milliken Ave. at Kenyon Ave. in the number two lane waiting for a traffic signal.

Mr. [redacted] saw a [redacted] approaching him from behind. He noticed that the front passenger, Deputy Green, and the driver, Mr. [redacted] were talking to each other and that it appeared that Mr. [redacted] was not paying attention to the road.

The vehicles collided resulting in minor damage to both vehicles. Mr. [redacted] stated that the driver of the [redacted] was wearing a green shirt and the front passenger was wearing a white shirt, later identified as Mr. [redacted] and Deputy Green respectively. Mr. [redacted] stated that both Mr. [redacted] and Deputy Green signaled with their hands for him to pull to the right. As the vehicles moved toward the curb, Mr. [redacted] saw a female (Ms. [redacted] seated in the left rear passenger area attempting to climb into the driver's seat area. This female later identified herself to Mr. [redacted] as the driver of the [redacted] he [redacted] believed her name was [redacted] Mr. [redacted] stopped his vehicle along the southeast curb on Kenyon Ave. just east of Milliken Ave. The [redacted] pulled in behind him and stopped. Mr. [redacted] stated that he never lost sight of the [redacted] and its occupants as the cars pulled off of Milliken Ave. onto Kenyon Ave.

Mr. [redacted] stepped from his truck to exchange information with the driver [redacted] Mr. [redacted] exited from the [redacted] driver's side door and Deputy Green exited from the front passenger side door. Both females remained in the [redacted] rear passenger seat area.

Mr. [redacted] and Deputy Green told Mr. [redacted] that there wasn't much damage to his vehicle. Mr. [redacted] asked Mr. [redacted] for his identification. Mr. [redacted] told him that he didn't have it with him. Deputy Green told Mr. [redacted] that the [redacted] belonged to him and offered his identification and insurance information. Deputy Green offered to go to a nearby ATM and to pay Mr. [redacted] for the damage to the truck, he told Mr. [redacted] that he could trust him (Green) because he was a cop. Mr. [redacted] told Deputy Green that he needed to call his sister (Ms. [redacted] first because the truck belonged to her.

While on his cellular phone with his sister, Mr. [redacted] told Deputy Green that she wanted him to get a police report.

> IAB Note: Section 20002 of the California Vehicle Code (refer to Miscellaneous Documents) only requires that an exchange of information occur between involved parties at the scene of a non-injury traffic accident. Section 20002 does require that the driver, "upon being requested . . . present his or her driver's license . . . to the other driver . . . any person failing to comply with all the requirements of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Mr. [redacted] stated that after he spoke to his sister regarding the police report the demeanor of both Mr. [redacted] and Deputy Green changed for the worse. Deputy Green said to Mr. [redacted] "I'll beat your fucking ass, we don't need a police report, you should stand up and make your own decisions and not listen to what your sister says."

> IAB Note: Deputy D.A. Silva stated that the 911 tape recording of Mr. [redacted] call to the San Bernardino Sheriff's Department Dispatch Center has been destroyed.

Ms. [redacted] stepped from the [redacted] via the left rear passenger door. She approached Mr. [redacted] and displayed what he believed was her LAPD identification card. She told him that she was police officer and they could leave at any time since there were no injuries.

Ms. [redacted] told Mr. [redacted] "He (referring to Mr. [redacted] wasn't driving the vehicle, I was." Mr. [redacted] told Ms. [redacted] that she was not the driver and that she could do as she pleased. Mr. [redacted] stated that his comment to Ms. [redacted] further angered both Mr. [redacted] and Deputy Green.

Deputy Green told Mr. [redacted] "Don't be a smart ass." Deputy Green walked up to Mr [redacted] and poked him in the chest with his finger and said, "Don't you ever talk to her that way again, we'll beat your ass, don't think we can't." Mr [redacted] stated he believed both Deputy Green and Mr. [redacted] were fully capable of carrying out their threat, he stated that he was "scared."

After speaking to Mr. [redacted] about Ms. [redacted] prior to Deputy [redacted] arrival, Deputy Green again approached Mr [redacted] and said, "I will kick your fucking ass, you pussy. Why don't you be a man and stop talking to your fucking sister and make your own decisions."

Statement by Deputy [redacted]

Deputy [redacted] statement was obtained from the following sources:

- Deputy [redacted] traffic report, DR #110410503, Exhibit "A."
- Deputy [redacted] courtroom testimony obtained from transcripts of the proceedings, Refer to Exhibit "B" Superior Court Transcripts, Case No. MWV-092168, Volume 3, Page 164.

Deputy [redacted] stated that on July 24, 2004, at 6:20 p.m., he was dispatched to Milliken Ave. and Kenyon Ave., regarding a non-injury traffic accident. Deputy [redacted] responded on his traffic motorcycle. Upon his arrival, some distance from the actual accident, Deputy [redacted] rode onto the sidewalk, turned off his motorcycle, and coasted the remaining distance.

As he approached the scene, he saw "a male subject wearing a green shirt [redacted] a white male subject wearing a white shirt (Deputy Green) and a female wearing a pink and white dress [redacted] I also noticed an oriental female [redacted] seated in the right rear seat of the [redacted] Both males had their backs toward Deputy [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] was leaning against the tailgate of the pick-up.

"I noticed that the white male subject in the green shirt and the white male subject in the white shirt appeared to be agitated and pointing a finger at [redacted] I heard both subjects say, 'We will kick your fucking ass, you fucking pussy. Why don't you make your own fucking decisions.' I then dismounted my police motorcycle and made contact with all parties." As Deputy [redacted] approached, he saw Ms. [redacted] tell Deputy Green and Mr. [redacted] that "the cops are here."

Ms. [redacted] approached Deputy [redacted] and presented her California Driver's License and her LAPD identification card to him. Deputy [redacted] told Ms. [redacted] to put her LAPD identification away, so that Mr. [redacted] wouldn't discover that she was a police officer. She stated that she was the driver of the [redacted]. Deputy [redacted] asked Mr. [redacted] and Deputy [redacted] to step from the street onto the sidewalk while he obtained a statement from Mr. [redacted] both complied.

Deputy [redacted] obtained Mr. [redacted] information and a brief statement from him regarding the accident. He then contacted Ms. [redacted]. As Deputy [redacted] was speaking to Ms. [redacted], Mr. [redacted] told him that he [redacted] needed to speak to him. Mr. [redacted] told Deputy [redacted] that Ms. [redacted] was not the driver of the [redacted], Mr. [redacted] was the driver.

Deputy [redacted] relayed this information to Ms. [redacted] She stated that Mr. [redacted] was a "fucking liar." Ms. [redacted] became increasingly upset as the conversation between herself and Deputy [redacted] progressed. Deputy [redacted] warned Ms. [redacted] about giving false statements, she insisted that she was the driver of the [redacted]

Based on the conflicting statements Deputy [redacted] asked Mr. [redacted] where he was seated in the vehicle at the time of the accident. Mr. [redacted] stated that he was in the front passenger seat, and Ms. [redacted] was driving. Deputy [redacted] asked Deputy Green the same question. Deputy Green told Deputy [redacted] that he was sitting in the front passenger seat and Ms. [redacted] was the driver of the [redacted].

Statement by Deputy David Green to Deputy [redacted]

Deputy Green's statement was obtained from the following source:

- Deputy [redacted] traffic report, DR #110410503, Exhibit "A." Deputy Green did not testify during the criminal trial.

Deputy Green stated that Ms. [redacted] was driving the [redacted] and that he and his wife [redacted] owned the vehicle. He stated that he was not driving due to a leg injury. Deputy [redacted] told Deputy Green that he had been given conflicting stories regarding the driver of the [redacted] Deputy Green reiterated that Ms. [redacted] was the driver of the [redacted], he pointed toward Mr. [redacted] and said, "this guy is fucking lying."

Deputy Green told Deputy [redacted] "the reason that [redacted] is lying and saying [redacted] was the driver of the vehicle is because he's pissed off because he believed [redacted] was drunk and we're cops and he don't (sic) like cops."

Based on the statements regarding seating position, Deputy [redacted] re-interviewed Mr. [redacted] and Ms. [redacted] several more times. Mr. [redacted] became upset with Deputy [redacted] for questioning his and Ms. [redacted] integrity and requested that Deputy [redacted] summon his supervisor to the scene. Deputy [redacted] requested a supervisor and Sergeant [redacted] responded.

Statement by Sergeant [redacted]

Sergeant [redacted] statement was obtained from the following sources:

- Deputy [redacted] traffic report, DR #110410503, Exhibit "A."
- Sergeant [redacted] courtroom testimony obtained from transcripts of the proceedings, Refer to Exhibit "B" Superior Court Transcripts, Case No. MWV-092168, Volume 4, Page 358.

Sergeant [redacted] stated that he was summoned to the scene by Deputy [redacted] Deputy [redacted] stated that he was handling a non-injury traffic accident involving an off-duty police officer and that the officer wanted to speak to him. Upon his arrival at the scene Sergeant [redacted] was briefed by Deputy [redacted] regarding the accident and the issue regarding who the driver of the [redacted] was.

Sergeant [redacted] stated that he spoke privately with Mr. [redacted] regarding the accident. Sergeant [redacted] told Mr. [redacted] that Mr. [redacted] had nothing to gain by lying about the accident, that all he wanted was to get his truck repaired. Sergeant [redacted] told Mr. [redacted] that he and his friends could face administrative consequences if they lied to Deputy [redacted] about the accident.

After speaking to Mr. [redacted] for ten minutes, Sergeant [redacted] told Deputy [redacted] that Mr. [redacted] wanted to speak to him. Sergeant [redacted] stated that he walked away and didn't hear the conversation between Mr. [redacted] and Deputy [redacted] Sergeant [redacted] stated that Mr. [redacted] never admitted to him that he was the driver of the [redacted].

Deputy [redacted] stated that after Sergean[redacted] summoned him Mr. [redacted] admitted that he was the driver of the [redacted].

Sergeant [redacted] described Deputy Green's behavior as "cooperative" during his brief contact with him.

Statement by [redacted]

Mr. [redacted] statement was obtained from the following sources:

- Deputy [redacted] traffic report, DR #110410503, Exhibit "A."
- Mr. [redacted] courtroom testimony obtained from transcripts of the proceedings, Refer to Exhibit "B" Superior Court Transcripts, Case No. MWV-092168, Volume 4, Page 417.

Mr. [redacted] stated that on July 25, 2004, he, his [redacted], Deputy David Green and his [redacted] went out to dinner. They left [redacted] Gree[redacted] home at approximately 6:00 p.m. [redacted] was driving, Ms. [redacted] was seated behind the driver, Deputy Green was seated in the front passenger seat, and Mr. [redacted] was seated behind Deputy Green.

Approximately 250-270 feet south of Kenyon Ave., on Milliken Ave., Ms. [redacted] rear-ended a pick-up truck driven by Mr. [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] leaned up between the front seats to see what had happened. Both he and Deputy Green signaled with their hands for Mr. [redacted] to pull over.

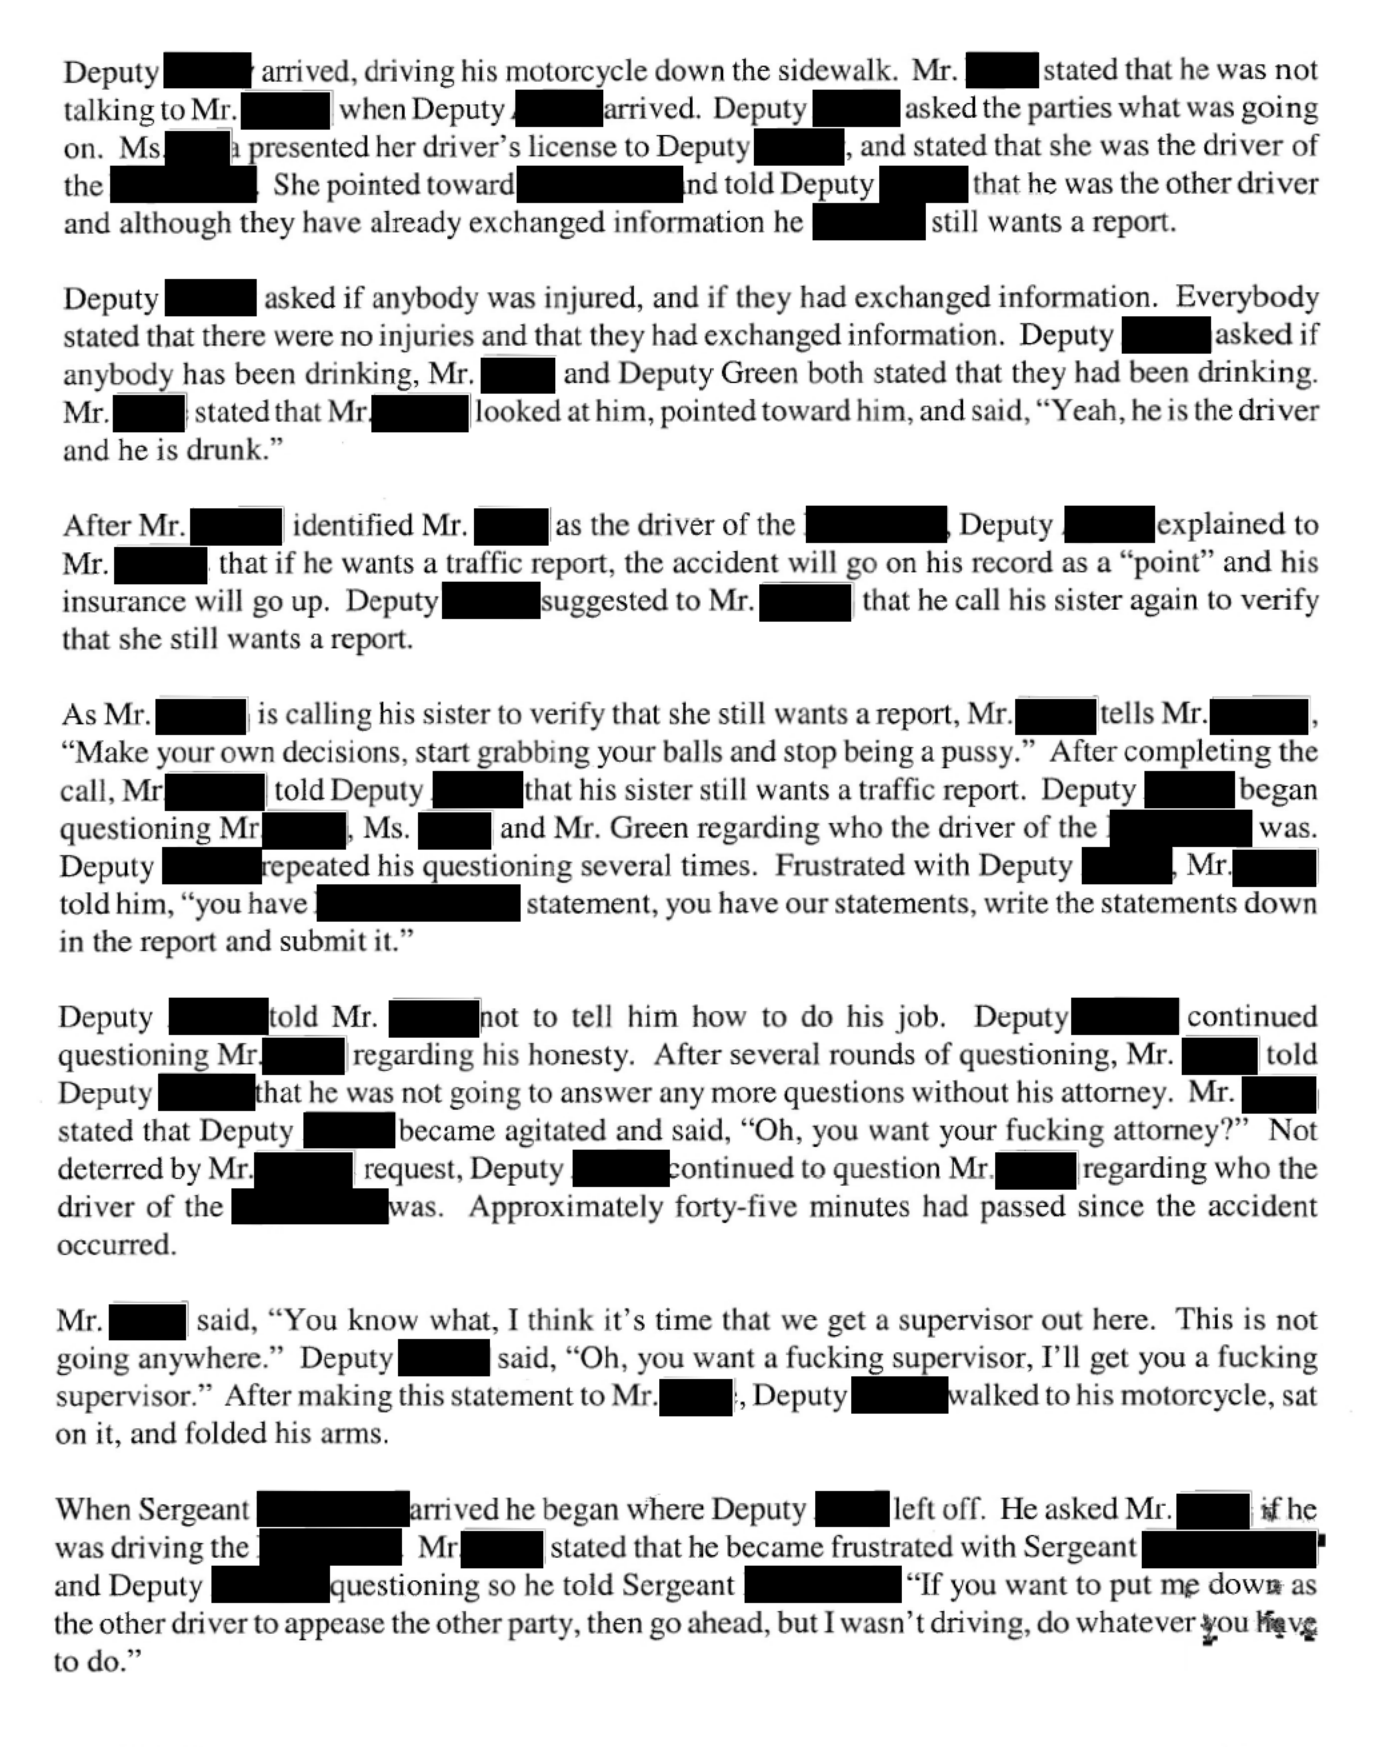

Deputy Green told Ms. [redacted] not to worry that it was a minor accident and that he would get out to handle it. Deputy Green and Mr. [redacted] exited the [redacted] walked up on the grassy area adjacent to the vehicle Mr. [redacted] was driving. Since Mr. [redacted] was not getting out of the pick-up, Mr. [redacted] walked up to the driver's side door of the pick-up. Mr. [redacted] saw Mr. [redacted] going through some paperwork. Mr. [redacted] asked Mr. [redacted] if he as injured.

The three walked back to the grassy area to discuss the accident. Deputy Green told Mr. [redacted] to get some estimates and he would pay for the damage. Deputy Green and Mr. [redacted] exchanged information.

Mr. [redacted] stated that Ms. [redacted] exited the [redacted] and walked to the area where they were discussing the accident. She handed Mr. [redacted] her driver's license. Mr. [redacted] told Mr. [redacted] that he needed to call his sister to see what she wanted him to do because the pick-up belonged to her.

Up to this point in time, Mr. [redacted] stated that nobody had identified themselves a police officers. Ms. [redacted] displayed her LAPD identification to Mr. [redacted] in an attempt to assure him that they were not going to try to take advantage of him, and that a report was not necessary. Mr. [redacted] insisted on a report and called the San Bernardino Sheriff's Department.

Mr. [redacted] stated that he was frustrated with Mr. [redacted] insistence on obtaining a police report. He told Mr. [redacted], "Why don't you make your own decisions. Grab your balls and don't be a pussy." Mr. [redacted] ignored Mr. [redacted]. Mr. [redacted] stated that neither he nor Deputy Green ever threatened to "kick his ass" nor did they touch or point toward Mr. [redacted]' chest.

Deputy [redacted] arrived, driving his motorcycle down the sidewalk. Mr. [redacted] stated that he was not talking to Mr. [redacted] when Deputy [redacted] arrived. Deputy [redacted] asked the parties what was going on. Ms. [redacted] presented her driver's license to Deputy [redacted], and stated that she was the driver of the [redacted]. She pointed toward [redacted] nd told Deputy [redacted] that he was the other driver and although they have already exchanged information he [redacted] still wants a report.

Deputy [redacted] asked if anybody was injured, and if they had exchanged information. Everybody stated that there were no injuries and that they had exchanged information. Deputy [redacted] asked if anybody has been drinking, Mr. [redacted] and Deputy Green both stated that they had been drinking. Mr. [redacted] stated that Mr. [redacted] looked at him, pointed toward him, and said, "Yeah, he is the driver and he is drunk."

After Mr. [redacted] identified Mr. [redacted] as the driver of the [redacted], Deputy [redacted] explained to Mr. [redacted] that if he wants a traffic report, the accident will go on his record as a "point" and his insurance will go up. Deputy [redacted] suggested to Mr. [redacted] that he call his sister again to verify that she still wants a report.

As Mr. [redacted] is calling his sister to verify that she still wants a report, Mr. [redacted] tells Mr. [redacted], "Make your own decisions, start grabbing your balls and stop being a pussy." After completing the call, Mr [redacted] told Deputy [redacted] that his sister still wants a traffic report. Deputy [redacted] began questioning Mr [redacted], Ms. [redacted] and Mr. Green regarding who the driver of the [redacted] was. Deputy [redacted] repeated his questioning several times. Frustrated with Deputy [redacted], Mr. [redacted] told him, "you have [redacted] statement, you have our statements, write the statements down in the report and submit it."

Deputy [redacted] told Mr. [redacted] not to tell him how to do his job. Deputy [redacted] continued questioning Mr. [redacted] regarding his honesty. After several rounds of questioning, Mr. [redacted] told Deputy [redacted] that he was not going to answer any more questions without his attorney. Mr. [redacted] stated that Deputy [redacted] became agitated and said, "Oh, you want your fucking attorney?" Not deterred by Mr. [redacted] request, Deputy [redacted] continued to question Mr. [redacted] regarding who the driver of the [redacted] was. Approximately forty-five minutes had passed since the accident occurred.

Mr. [redacted] said, "You know what, I think it's time that we get a supervisor out here. This is not going anywhere." Deputy [redacted] said, "Oh, you want a fucking supervisor, I'll get you a fucking supervisor." After making this statement to Mr. [redacted], Deputy [redacted] walked to his motorcycle, sat on it, and folded his arms.

When Sergeant [redacted] arrived he began where Deputy [redacted] left off. He asked Mr. [redacted] if he was driving the [redacted]. Mr [redacted] stated that he became frustrated with Sergeant [redacted] and Deputy [redacted] questioning so he told Sergeant [redacted] "If you want to put me down as the other driver to appease the other party, then go ahead, but I wasn't driving, do whatever you have to do."

Sergeant [redacted] said, "all right" and summoned Deputy [redacted] He told Deputy [redacted] to get Mr. [redacted] driver information. Deputy [redacted] spoke to Mr. [redacted] for approximately thirty seconds, obtaining his driver's information. Mr. [redacted] stated that Sergeant [redacted] and Deputy [redacted] walked away from him at the same time. Sergeant [redacted] began speaking to Mr. [redacted] After approximately thirty seconds Sergeant [redacted] looked toward Mr. [redacted] and said, "You guys go ahead and take off."

Mr. [redacted] stated that he never told Deputy [redacted] that he was the driver of the [redacted].

Statement by [redacted]

Ms. [redacted] statement was obtained from the following source:

– Ms. [redacted] courtroom testimony obtained from transcripts of the proceedings, Refer to Exhibit "B" Superior Court Transcripts, Case No. MWV-092168, Volume 4, Page 472.

  IAB Note: Ms. [redacted] was interviewed at the scene by Deputy [redacted]. On September 1, 2004, Deputy [redacted] was killed in an on-duty traffic accident prior to completing a supplemental report.

[redacted] stated that on July 25, 2004, she, [redacted] Deputy David Green, and the [redacted] were preparing to go out to dinner. [redacted] stated that she consumed one alcoholic beverage, Deputy Green and Mr. [redacted] consumed two each prior to leaving. Ms. [redacted] didn't consume any alcohol and because of this she drove that evening. Deputy Green sat beside Ms. [redacted] Ms. [redacted] sat behind Ms. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] sat behind Deputy Green.

At Milliken Ave. and Kenyon Ave. Ms. [redacted] bumped into Mr. [redacted] pick-up truck. Deputy Green signaled for Mr. [redacted] to pull to the right onto Kenyon Ave. Deputy [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] exited the [redacted] and contacted Mr. [redacted] who was still seated in the pick-up. Ms. [redacted] exited the [redacted] and walked toward Deputy Green, who was standing on the sidewalk. Ms. [redacted] remained seated in the [redacted] She [redacted] saw everybody casually talking, but couldn't hear what they were saying.

After approximately ten minutes, Ms. [redacted] exited the [redacted] and asked Deputy Green what was going on. Deputy Green told Ms [redacted] that Mr. [redacted] was talking to his sister and that she wanted a police report. Ms. [redacted] stated that she heard Mr. [redacted] say, "My sister wants a fucking police report." Deputy Green told Mr. [redacted] to calm down. Ms. [redacted] walked across the street to an Albertsons and purchased a beverage. Ms. [redacted] returned five to seven minutes later and observed two police officers talking to Deputy Green, Mr. [redacted] and Ms. [redacted]

Ms. [redacted] stated that she returned to the [redacted] and sat down on the front seat. She saw Deputy [redacted] walking back and forth between Mr. [redacted] Deputy Green and Ms. [redacted] several times. Eventually, Deputy [redacted] walked to his motorcycle, sat down, folded his arms and said, "I'm not leaving until somebody tells me the fucking truth."

Ms. [redacted] saw Deputy Green walk toward Deputy [redacted] and tell him, "We are telling the truth, I don't know what fucking else you want us to tell you." Deputy [redacted] said, "Well someone is fucking lying."

Shortly after this, Sergeant [redacted] arrived. Ms. [redacted] saw him speak to Deputy [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] She saw the three walk back toward where the cars were parked. Ms. [redacted] saw Deputy [redacted] shake Deputy Green's hand. After this they left the scene and drove home.

Although Deputy Green, Mr. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] were all upset, Ms. [redacted] did not hear Deputy Green or Mr. [redacted] direct any profanity at Mr. [redacted]

Deputy David Green's statement to IAB Investigators

Deputy Green stated that on July 25, 2004, he [redacted] and the [redacted] were going out to celebrate the sale of the Green's home. Prior to leaving, Deputy Green, [redacted] and [redacted] consumed alcoholic beverages. He and Mr. [redacted] had two drinks and [redacted] had one. [redacted] didn't have any drinks so she was made the designated driver.

Deputy Green stated that he sat in the front passenger seat, [redacted] sat directly behind Ms. [redacted] who was driving and Mr. [redacted] sat in the right rear passenger seat. He stated Ms. [redacted] rear ended a pick-up truck driven by Mr. [redacted] at Milliken Ave. and Kenyon Ave. Deputy [redacted] stated that he was not talking to Mr. [redacted] just prior to the accident.

After the accident Deputy Green stated that he signaled with is hand for Mr. [redacted] to pull over. After the vehicles stopped he and Mr. [redacted] exited the [redacted] and approached the pick-up. Deputy Green stated that Mr. [redacted] remained seated in the pick-up. Mr. [redacted] asked Mr. [redacted] if he was okay, Deputy Green stated that he didn't hear much of their conversation because he was standing by the rear of the pick-up.

When Mr. [redacted] exited the pick-up Deputy Green began to exchange information with him. He stated that since the damage was so minor, he thought they could settle the matter between themselves. Deputy Green denied offering to go to an ATM to pay Mr. [redacted] for the damage.

Mr. [redacted] told Deputy Green that he needed to call his sister to see how she wanted him to handle the accident. When she told him that she wanted the police to write a report Deputy Green stated that his (Green's) reaction to this was, "no problem, I understand." Deputy Green stated that Mr. [redacted] became upset after speaking to his sister about the accident.

Deputy Green said "I explained to him, 'We don't need a police report.' He said, 'No, I want a flicking police report.' I said, 'Hey, you don't need to get angry. If you want a police report that's fine. I'm just letting you know we don't need a police report. But if you want one, go ahead.'"

Deputy Green was asked if he ever used any profanity during his contact with Mr. [redacted]. He said, "No, I did not." He was asked if he ever called Mr. [redacted] a "pussy" he said, "No." He was asked if he ever told Mr. [redacted] to make his own decisions, "No, I did not say that." When asked if he ever pointed his finger toward Mr. [redacted] or ever touched Mr. [redacted] Deputy Green said, "No, I did not." Deputy Green added that Mr. [redacted] never did any of the above either.

Deputy Green was asked if in Deputy [redacted] presence, he ever pointed toward Mr. [redacted] and said he's a fucking liar, referring to Mr. [redacted] Deputy Green said, "No, I did not." Deputy Green was asked if in the presence of Deputy [redacted] he ever pointed toward Mr. [redacted] and said he's fucking lying, referring to Mr. [redacted]. Deputy Green said, "No, I did not."

After Ms. [redacted] exited the [redacted] and spoke to Mr. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] responded to her, Deputy Green was asked if he ever told Mr. [redacted] not to speak to Ms. [redacted] in a certain tone of voice, Deputy Green said, "No." Deputy Green was asked if he ever said, "The reason that [redacted] is lying, saying that [redacted] was the driver of the vehicle, is because he's pissed off because he believed [redacted] was drunk and we're cops and he didn't like cops." Deputy Green said, "No, I did not."

Deputy Green was asked, "At what point did Mr. [redacted] discover you were police officers?" He said, "I have no idea. I imagine after the police report was written."

> IAB Note: Deputy Green stated that he wasn't privy to all of the conversations between Mr. [redacted] and Mr. [redacted] so he doesn't know if Mr. [redacted] told Mr. [redacted] that they were police officers.

Deputy Green was asked if he had any idea why Mr. [redacted] would tell Deputy [redacted] that Mr. [redacted] was driving the [redacted] Deputy Green said, "I don't know if he's trying to get money out of it. I have no idea why he's saying, unless [redacted] and him had words, and they're upset with each other. I heard [redacted] say, you know, like I said, 'Grab your balls.' You know, I don't know if that offended him, but that's my only reasoning. I have no idea why."

Refer to the verbatim transcription of Deputy Green's IAB interview for further details of his interview.
